Defeated so in your eyes
Been exposed to your types
See the crime before it happens
The cheated know of your kind set
It kneads the dough of your mind
Just breathe and thank your vile omens
Evil takes it's toll
Let it
Just breathe and thank your milds
Just breathe and tack your miles.

Defeated so in your eyes
Been exposed to your types
See the crime before it happens
The cheated know of your kind set
Defeated so in your eyes
Been exposed to your types
See the crime before it happens
Evil takes it's toll

Limited. Lonely like who?
Limited only by you

Evil dressed in disguise.

The lesser. The greater. Amount of the lesson.

Pour me in thy own wane.

What of it?
Subtle.
Suffocating my omens.
