Look, look to the sun
Its final set
Expectation gone.
Known only regret.
There was a time when love saw me blind
Now fast heals bruising.
The fueling from doing and chewing through time.
There's a line of lessons, progressions
I confess i'm doing it.

You decide today as you turn that page
You will not subordinate

Sever is the clever that i've come to master never have i ever left a knot so tangled
Progression is a lesson no matter how selfish
The only hole i'm crawling out of is your ass!

You decide today as you turn that page
You will not subordinate

Look up towards the Sun
Deactivation of the
Onus
We are but What?
These acts of valor
Rise like forgotten feats of dawn
Wheeze the life of mention only to set upon
Un
Sung
These nights of heathen
Do me no just

Akin to the sun
Akin to the sun hillock again.
Vengeance.
