I feel enslaved as a pawn
A feeble sake for your own span
You know i feel ashamed and know you feel the same and so i flee for change from you vultures.

Once you take me out of the equation you are all you have. Heed the lesson. Survive it and monitor with noted stance.

Steer the blame if you want
Smear my name for the known truth

Peel the shades expose the pith innate I know for regal sake it apport.

I feel ashamed and know you feel the same and so i flee for change from you vultures

Once you take me out of the equation you are all you have. Heed the lesson. Survive it and monitor with
noted stance.

Steer the blame if you want
Smear my name for the known truth

I feel enslaved as a pawn
A feeble sake for your own span
You know i feel ashamed and know you feel the same
and so i flee for change from you vultures

Feel ashamed and know you feel the same

Once you take me out of the equation you are all you
noted stance.

Steer the blame if you want
Smear my name for the known truth
