These are days
When love has lost enough
But I won't lose my way this time
So many days
All we want is more
So I will make the best of mine
But these illusions
Of things I think I see, well
I'll tell you what they mean
You might feel as dark as coal
But when you burn you heat my sole
In and out these days move slow
But when you speak you seek my love
So I'm giving it all to you
So anyway
I hope you stay awhile
Cause I think you need this too
What I say might be old in style
But I still think it rings true
These disasters of people's broken hearts
Only tell us what we want
But you might feel as dark as coal
But when you burn you heat my sole
In and out these days move slow
But when you speak you seek my love
So I'm giving it all to you
I'm just waiting for the words I want
Words with meaning, that fire and feeling
And I can see that happening soon
But all I got to do
Is give it all to you
But you might feel as dark as coal
But when you burn you heat my sole
In and out these days move slow
But when you speak you seek my love
So I'm giving it all to you
Yea I'm giving it all to you
