I look across the rooom
she can't remember all the times all the lies i used to make my move all this hesitation
its killing me its breaking me in two im not about to give up on you can it be that youre the one or maybe theres another reason i cant get you off my mind im trying to break a habit but it seems like youre the only one thats breaking anything

tonight is all we have one shot to get out of this town lets make it last

give me one night give me one night youre so lucky youre oh so lucky that i made this easy for you
dont worry please dont worry cuz by the break of dawn you wont remember cuz ill be gone

tonight's another chapter who knows where this will end lets write it together who cares if we remember tonight we need a breakdown to forget about this town it makes my heart ache i'll make youre heart break down this night is all we have

one shot to get out of this town tonight
