I've left all the friends i know and i'm down to skin and bones and mind can't get me now you catch all the signs i show and by now we're burning slow but we can't wait this out now

hang on in the end we'll make things right , in the end we'll be just fine because i want out i'd give it up to get it all, i'd give it up to get it all, i'd give it up to take it all by now it's the face you show and i feel it in my bones that we won't make it out you turned on all the lights you shown and this curse is not alone but we can't break it down now hang on in the end we'll be just fine in the end we'll make things right because i want out i'd give it up to get it all, i'd give it up to get it all, i'd give it up to take it all

hang on in the end we'll make things right , in the end we'll be just fine because i want out i'd give it up to get it all, i'd give it up to get it all, i'd give it up to take it all
