Won't you fill another taller
And I will be the last to lose Day two I'm still underwater
The last thought i gave to soon
You..... you

I woke up inside calling out your name
Four seconds felt like I'm alive again
You are the love of my life and i dont have the guts to say
Come in and I'll last while I'll stay

Won't you breathe before its over but I'll chose the safest place for you December feels so far I hate her
I will stay low til its too much for you

I woke up inside calling out your name
Four seconds felt like I'm alive again
You are the love of my life and i dont have the guts to
say
Come in and I'll last while I'll stay

The conversations all but dead
there's too much i haven't said
The conversations all but dead

I woke up inside calling out your name
Four seconds felt like I'm alive again
You are the love of my life and i dont have the guts to
say
Come in and I'll last while I'll stay
