I wish that I could shut my eyes,
I'm all done with a tight grip
I have yet to find a low, I have yet

I found to believe as the time went by,
I look back at the lifestyle,
I have yet to find a low,
I have yet to find a low

I'm tired of waking up at night,
while i roll over your ghost self
I have yet to find a low,
I have yet to find a low,
I have yet to find a low
I have yet

chorus:
wait forever,
I'll spend my life alone until you know
so I'll just wait forever
you never call me now
I should have known
so I'll just pay

I write down all the thoughts and cries, designs I buried from last year
I have yet to find a low,
I have yet to find a low

many times I broke this lie, but i have walked on a steel well

I have yet to find a low,
I have yet to find a low,
I have yet to find a low
I have yet

chorus:
wait forever,
I'll spend my life alone until you know

I should have known..

we'll never even know now
and we'll never even know now (we'll never even know now)

I'm tired of waking up at night,
while i roll over your ghost self
I have yet to find a low
I have yet to find a low
I have yet

chorus:
wait forever,
i should have known
so I'll just pay...
