Turn it down a little bit (You and me against the world)
I don't wanna heat it It's gonna be me and him against the world (You and me against the world)

'Cause it's you and me against the world, the world, the
world
They ask me, "do you love Him enough that you would really give up the
World?"

It's been too long, I
Can't live 'dis life no mo'
Wit' all o' yo' lies, I
Can't run from right no mo'

He took on flesh for me
All you took was my joy
He played his role perfectly
You played me like a toy

I'm so done wit' you
I got my bags packed
I'm burnin' my bridges
'Case you try ta drag me back

Someone got me loose
Here, you can have your noose
You're like a brown recluse
I'm chuckin' up tha deuce, through

They told me it wouldn't last
They said it would never work
They told me this love would pass
But it's you and me against the world

They told me to leave you now
You're only with him 'cause you're hurt
But I'm gonna stand my ground
'Cause it's you and me against the world, the world, the

world

really give up the
World?"

I did the stupidest things for you
All in the name of staying true
Embarrassing myself, had me actin' like a fool, and What did I get in return, and
What did I get in exchange
Besides, teary eyes, broken hearts and lots of pain

Tried to hold on to what we had
But, it was never real, and
The one who loved me the most, man
I helped him get killed, man

Millions of regrets, yet
The love that I rejected
Eventually resurrects

See, although I played Him
Blatantly Betrayed Him
See that guy right there
I'm gonna save him

That's exactly what He did
After the perfect life was lived
Crucified, he would rise
Now, I'm one of His kids

Now I'm head over hills all though his got brused
Me and You aganisnt the world Jesus Christ we can't lose
He's crushing heads, guess that means I'm crush too
When I say this Lord is true

'Cause it's you and me against the world, the world, the
world
really give up the
World?"

I can tell your searching,
Let me show you what to find
You can trust me (I wont lie)

Come now don't be stupid,
Why would you leave this behind?
Your not going anywhere your mine

I gone, I'm leaving everything,
'Cause He, He is my everything
And He, Gave it all up for me
And that's something that you'll never know

They told me it wouldn't last
They said it would never work
They told me this love would pass
But it's you and me against the world

They told me to leave you now
You're only with him 'cause you're hurt
But I'm gonna stand my ground
'Cause it's you and me against the world, the world, the
world
really give up the
World?"

"do you love Him enough that you would really give up the
World?"

If you really want to know, Yes I love Him enough that I would really give up the World.
