He did it, oh yes he did it
He did it, oh yes he did it
He did it oh
Then he delivered me
He has forgiven me
Yeah your boy was lost
I was outta my mind
Refusing to come to the cross
Although it was crossin' my mind
I'm glad he saved me though
No tellin' where I would be
If I'd be dead or alive
But there is no goodness in me
It is the truth I was dead in my sin
But God had predestined me to be His son
God had elected me to be His son
It's only by faith alone through grace alone
It was His own sovereign choice
That He would snatch me up out of the grave
Picked me up, turned me around, now I am saved

He did it again
He rescued me from sin
He did it again
He saved me now I'm born again
He did it again
He made me apart of his plan
Blinded by misery, then He delivered me, He has forgiven me, I've got the victory

Back in position and ready to go
The enemy thought he had us in the bag
But if you a Christian then let the world know
That they can be free and be cool without that
But not only free, that they can be whole
He up on the tree for saving his self
That they can return and find a purpose
They can return and finally know

(That He's great)
Tell 'em what they are all missin' out on

(That He's great)
Tell Him His grace is sufficient and strong
(That His love)
Tell 'em what they are all missin' out on
(That His grace)
Tell Him his grace is sufficient and strong
(Through His Son)
Tell 'em what they are all missin' out on
(On the cross)
Tell Him His grace is sufficient and strong
Tell 'em what they are all missin' out on 3x Tell Him His grace is sufficient and strong

He did it again
He rescued me from sin
He did it again
He saved me now I'm born again
He did it again
He made me apart of his plan
Blinded by misery, then He delivered me, He has
forgiven me, I've got the victory

3x You don't know everything I have been through
No
(What can I say but you're faithful)
3x You don't know everything I have been through
2x You don't know you don't know

I was bound and chained in darkness, the enemy had me, he had me
But you came with the keys and set me free
You didn't have to do it Lord but I'm glad you did (I'm glad you did)
You could've past me by and left me dead in my sin
I'm so thankful grateful grateful
Praise your grateful thank you thank you
You're so mighty to save
What can I say but You're faithful

He did it again
He rescued me from sin
He did it again
He saved me now I'm born again
He did it again
He made me apart of his plan
Blinded by misery, then He delivered me, He has
forgiven me, I've got the victory

3x You don't know everything I have been through
(2x What can I say but you're faithful)
3x You don't know everything I have been through

(2x What can I say but you're faithful)
