A reason, a victim
A shining beacon in the sky
You yearn for what's missing
The Power hidden in the night

An Angel, a Demon
The parts you play on lonesome nights
The damage inflicted
The pain and lust they leave behind

Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey
Never Give In, Never back down,
Never Give In

We're soldiers in season,
We can be change before we die,
The tales for their beatings,
To fear what lies beneath our eyes...

Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey
Never Give In, Never back down,
Never Give In. Never back down.
When your life feels lost.
FIGHT AGAINST ALL ODDS!
Never Give In, Never back down!
