

Flaming Lips "Evil Will Prevail"

Visit "Evil Will Prevail" on MotoLyrics.com

With loving hands and their arms are stretched so wide They can't seem to take a breath knowing evil will prevail
And a million people seems like a lot
And a million people can't be wrong

With loving smiles and their mouths are stretched so wide

They can't even take a breath knowing evil will prevail
And the magic bullet is the glowing mother ship
And the mother zaps you dead

With loving hands, knowing evil will prevail
Knowing evil will prevail
Knowing that evil will prevail
Knowing evil will always win
