Hail to the Earth
O companion the moon
It orbits so faithfully
It's a satellite true

If you'll be the Earth
I'll be your moon
As long as you want me to
A satellite true

It's obvious it's you
I keep in my view
It's a logical gravity
That pulls me to you
The sun was made to shine
All around you
If a little bit comes my way
It's the least I can do

Because you're the Earth
And I'm just the moon
It orbits so faithfully
A satellite true
It orbits so faithfully
A satellite of you
