Oh babe

Little lady dyin' to find

The love that she can call her own

She can't be alone

And that's where she's callin' my name, ooh yeah

See I know that she can love me deeply

If she could have the time

To get her look just right

And then maybe she could be mine, oh yeah

'Cause she's just tryin to shine

To find something to get out of life

When will she realize

That the answer is right there in front of her eyes

She go crazy thinking 'bout things

She can't afford to have today

She need to come on and love me for me

I've been known to make a way, hey, ooh wee

I know me and I can't love her like that

I can be different from another man

'Cause she's so fine and somehow or someway

I'm gonna make that girl mine

'Cause she's just tryin to shine

To find something to get out of life

When will she realize

That the answer is right there in front of her eyes

'Cause she's just tryin to shine

To find something to get out of life

When will she realize

That the answer is right there in front of her eyes

Do you baby?

Do do do do do do, uh huh

Oh, uh yeah, hey, hey

'Cause she's just tryin to shine

To find something to get out of life

When will she realize

That the answer is right there in front of her eyes

'Cause she's just tryin to shine

To find something to get out of life

When will she realize

That the answer is right there in front of her eyes

'Cause she's just tryin to shine

To find something to get out of life

When will she realize
That the answer is right there in front of her eyes
'Cause she's just tryin to shine
To find something to get out of life
