Ici deja, j'ai peine a rester seul
Une heure deja, je veux etre avec elle
Manquer d'air, vouloir respirer
Trop d'images se mettent ? defiler

Alone with her, I don't care

Shake down there, I don't realise being alone
Shake down there, I don't realise being alone
I will wait before knocking on your door

Je sais deja la verite sur elle
Comme un ange qui se casserait les ailes
Laisse seul, etendu sur le sofa

But now it's too much cause I can't stand being alone
All alone, all alone

Shake down there, I don't realise being alone
Shake down there, I don't realise being alone
I will wait before knocking on your door

Tell me how fragile I am

Wait before knocking on your door
Tell, no

Shake down there, I don't realise being alone
And in my face, you see the smile like a stone
Cause you looked at me once
And you said : "call me again"
But there is still one person
I'd like to get on the phone

It's you
