Late one night in pale moon light
Hey, now, now, now carry 'em out

Ran a crew of hoods with a lust for life
Hey, now, now, now carry 'em out

They grabbed this boy asleep in bed
Hey, now, now, now carry 'em out

Laying in slumber as if half dead
Hey, now, now, now carry 'em out

They're knocking down the wall, they're kicking down your door
The Hooligans are coming, they're coming back for more
You know they're here, they smell your fear

What you gonna do
Remember this test keep sleeping dressed
This story is the truth

Can't see no soul through his dark blindfold
Hey, now, now, now carry 'em out

Taken to a place where the air is cold
Hey, now, now, now carry 'em out

Wondering if this is how life ends
Hey, now, now, now carry 'em out

Then the fold comes off and it's all his friends
Hey, now, now, now carry 'em out
