Cool your jets. You're going nowhere.
Check the mirror, you're like a road flare.
Just 'cause some jerk stepped on your toes,
Doesn't mean you gotta go and break his nose.

Hot head! Hot head! Hot head! Hot head!
Hot head! Hot head! Hot head! Hot head! Hot head!

Like the simple man who leaves the path and falls,
You're like a castle without walls.
[2x]

Take a step back before you start.
Weigh it all out and check your heart.
You'd earn my respect to overlook this offense,
Instead of starting fights over nonsense.
Losing your temper is always a mistake

And never the road I'd want you to take.
For all my friends you'd better beware,
I don't post bail for babies in daycare.

Hot head! Hot head! Hot head! Hot head! Hot head!
Hot head! Hot head! Hot head! Hot head! Hot head!

Like the simple man who leaves the path and falls,
You're like a castle without walls.
[2x]

Sit right here and take a deep breath.
You're acting like a dumb twaker who's out of meth.
And do yourself a favor and act your age,
Instead of giving in to stupid rage.

Hot head! Hot head! Hot head! Hot head!... Hot head!
