Well my old shoes are layin' on the floor Cause I ain't gonna wear 'em no more They took me many miles down many hard road but that's what shoes are for The time has flown and I'm back home every shoe I ever wore and I guess my barefoot will have to carry me one road more

chorus:

Lord I ain't got a liquor since I got a crazy mind Cause I don't wanna leave and I don't wanna stay behind Well at the end of this one last road they say there's always an open door

Well I never could move my feet too fast in a pair of rich man's shoes and a rainshoe's life can last as long as a woman's blues
Well I told the line this one last time now I got something else in store

Well I've walked through the citystreets in the sun and the rain and the wind and the snow And I've walked through the mountains and the valleys When there was nowhere else to go This time I'll just follow the wind and they can bow and the rain can pour and my barefoot will have to carry me one road more

chorus

Yeah my barefoot are gonna have to carry me one road
