Picking apart everything that I do and say,
That penetrating laughter that always got caught inside
my head,
You pushed him back with all times that you made fun of me
Not wanting me but wanting that part of me instead
All the things that you do to me
When you say you can not stay awhile
And all the times that you've gone through me
Everytime you hide behind your smile

Chorus

Everything that you do for me
You take and you use it for yourself
You don't really care about me
As long as you get what you want and leave
I can't believe all the things that I have said to you
In hopes to hear all of the words you wouldn't say
And now I know everything you said to me was never true
Just another one of those stupid games you play

All the things that I want from you
When you say you can not stay awhile
All the times I never saw through you
When you always hid behind that smile

Chorus

And now I know...
That you can't show...
Now I know...
So now I'll go...

Chorus
