"No Time"

Are you gonna change up the rules
Giving the impression that all this comes from you
Treating all your allies like tools
Maybe there is a facet of life that passed right by you

Even the fathers of all our misguided sons are Resting in a place of no disgrace surrounded by Examples giving grace to all those people feeling the grudge
Of one expensive taste, oh what a waste
Provided by you

Time, needing much more of
Time, calling me home and
Time is the only portion of life
That is not negotiable...

Stories that we know just aren't true
All of those things that make our time overdue
Treating all your allies like tools
Maybe there's a facet of life that passed right by you

Even the fathers of all our misguided sons are
Resting in a place of no disgrace surrounded by Examples giving grace to all those people feeling the
grudge
Of one expensive taste, such a waste
Provided by you

Time, needing much more of
Time, calling me home and
Time is the only portion of life
That is not negotiable...

Time, needing much more of
Time, calling me home and
Time is the only portion of life
That is not negotiable...
