Open the drain
Waiting for change
We open the door for all the strains We're all really deranged to think our existence here is bigger picture that we're drawn to

Coming to terms with the burns
And lessons learned about the things we should have understood
Too late to fix the ?? around the ?sticks?
We make it our hobby

Don't be down
What's your purpose?
You'll find out
When it's time

I believe in myself nothing else
I believe in myself nothing else
I believe in myself nothing else
I believe in myself

Severe the ties, believe the lies
Circumcised, the reason to try is never behind
The answer is never amazing us
Unable to trust the one thing we're pulled to

After the fall, you put up a wall
Coming a pawn, searching it all
You couldn't believe I'm able to see what you couldn't read in front of me
I might have killed you

Don't be down
What's your purpose?
You'll find out
When it's time

I believe in myself nothing else
I believe in myself nothing else
I believe in myself nothing else

I believe in myself

Find your own way...

Find your own way...

I'm going to find my own fucking way out

I'm going to find my own way out

I'm going to find my own way out

I'm going to find my own way out

I'm going to find my own way out (I will, I will)

I'm going to find my own way out

I'll do fine by myself

I'll do fine by myself

I'll do fine by myself

I'll do fine by myself
