There must be something you can recommend
I've lost my faith in man again
So sick of trying pretend
Same pain over and over again

How much longer do you'll think we'll stand?
So little left here to live for
By the time my life is at its end

I want it back one more time
Let me try one more time
Live my life one more time

Oh, we never seem ready for this
(For this)
We never seem ready for this

Keeps on, keeps on, keeps on, keeps on
Keeps on, keeps on, keeps on, keeps on
Keeps on, keeps on, keeps on, keeps on
Keeps on, keeps on

It keeps haunting me day after day
Am I going about things the right way?
Which truths to pass which truths to say
It's all so hard I'm just so damn afraid

Had about as much as I can take
So little left here to live for
By the time my life is at its end

I'll want it back one more time
One more time, one more time
One more just one more time

I need a chance to live my life one more time
Give me the chance to live my life one more time
I want a chance to live my life one more time
Give me the chance to live, just one more time

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
(Just one more time, time)
