Tonight decide

To rise above yourself

Last chance, your choice

To rise above yourself

You're going out again

You're acting out again

You're passing out again

Don't waste your breath on me

I'm in control, I'm doing fine

(But I'm finding out you're going down)

Don't waste your time on me

This is my choice, This is my life

(But I'm finding out you're going down)

I'm sad but not surprised, your eyes

Cry panic

Please decide, to reside

In this promise

You're sitting right across the room

I wish you only knew

How beautiful you are

Tonight decide to rise above yourself

I'm sad but not surprised, your eyes

Cry panic

Please decide, to reside

In the promise

[Do You Think Dallas Is Still In The Slammer? Lyrics on

You are not alone, I promise

You're so beautiful

You are not alone, I promise

Never forget

You are not alone, I promise

What it's like

I promise

To be loved

I promise
