There's a place
I sometimes see you there
It's a place that I visit
Most every night

And I see your face
Your eyes tell me you still care
But it's suddenly over
With morning's first light

As the day begins
This feelin' is goin' strong
And sometimes the only thing
That keeps me goin' on
And until you find, hmm
Your own way back to me
I'll be forever
Dreamin' the dream

As the day begins
This feelin' is goin' strong
And sometimes the only thing
That keeps me goin' on
And until you find, ooo
Your own way back to me
I'll be forever
Dreamin' the dream

Ooh, I'll be forever, hmm
Dreamin' the dream
Ooh hmm
Ooh hmm yea
