Oh, my mind is made up about you
Now and always
Though the seasons come and they go
Nothing will ever change

Well I took a little chance
And I laid my heart down
I thought you'd be the one
Who would always stick around
I took a little time
Though I knew it would be
That we had a date with destiny

(Oh and I know)
Well out of the darkness
(Ohh)
And out of the long black night
(Yes I know)
You have given me heart, yes
(I know)
And you showed me the light
And I do, I do
I love you for what you are?

Well this heart of mine
I know it so well
There are so many strange stories
That I could tell

Many is a time
I went out on a limb
You reached out for me baby
And you brought me back again
A lot of stormy nights
I've seen many a full moon, but darlin'
This is love in the afternoon

(Oh and I know)
Well out of the darkness
(Ohh)
And out of the long black night
(Yes I know)

You have given me heart, yes
(I know)
And you showed me the light
And I do, I do
I love you for what you are?

(Oh and I know)
So out of the darkness
(Ohh)
And out of the long black night
(Yes I know)
You have given me heart, yes
(I know)
And you showed me the light
And I do, I do
I love you for what you are?
Yes, I love you for what you are?
I love you for what you are?

I do love you for what you are?
Yes, I do love you for what you are?
I do love you for what you are?
Yes, I do love you for what you are?
