We make all of our suns the same
Every one will suffer the fire we've made
They all explode just the same
And there's no goin' back on the plans we've made

Peacekeeper, take your time
Wait for the dark of night
Soon all the suns will rise
Peacekeeper, don't tell why
Don't be afraid to fight
Love is the sweet surprise

Oh...oh...oh...oh...oh...oh...

Only creatures who are on their way
Ever poison their own, well
But we still have time to hate
And there's still somethin' we can sell

Peacekeeper, take your time
Wait for the dark of night
Soon all the suns will rise
Peacekeeper, don't tell why
Don't be afraid to fight
Love is the sweet surprise

When the night is cold and still
When you thought you've had your fill Take all the time you will
This is not a test, it's not a drill
Take no prisoners, only kill

Oh...oh...oh...oh...oh...oh...
Oh...oh...oh...oh...oh...oh...

You know all of our friends are gods

And they all tell us how to paint our face
But there's only one brush we need
It's the one that never leaves a trace

Peacekeeper, take your time (Peacekeeper, take your time) Wait for the dark of night (Wait for the dark of night) Soon all the suns will rise (Soon all the suns will rise) Peacekeeper, don't tell why (Peacekeeper, don't tell

Peacekeeper, take your time
Wait for the dark of night (Wait for the dark of
