The bright light is lying down
The earth and the sea and the sky
Is at rest with the ocean
And the days go by

They go into the seas that have no shores...
Haunted by that same closed door...
Looking up at skies on fire...
Leaving nothing left of us...
To discover...

And the planets of the universe Go their way
Not astounded by the sun or the moon
Or by the day
You and I will simply disappear
Out of sight
Ooh, but I'm afraid soon there'll be
No light

No doubt, no pain
Come ever again, well let there be light in this lifetime
In the cool silent moments
Of the nighttime.
Of the nighttime

And the planets of the universe
Go their way
Not astounded by the sun or the moon
Or by the day
We will never change again
The way that we are changing
Well you forget the chill of love, but not the strain

Now I know
Well, I was wrong to live for a dream
If I had my life to live over
I would never dream, no
I still wish you gone
And I will live alone
Yes, I will live alone

And the planets of the universe go their way

I know you don't believe it
Not astounded by the soon or moon or day
I know you don't believe it
You and I will simply disappear out of sight
Well, but I'm afraid soon there'll be no light

You will never love again the way you love me
You will never rule again the way you've ruled me
You will never change again the way you're changing
You will never rule again the way you've ruled me
