"Sad Angel"

My eyes were consumed
By the silence in the room
Your dreams when I wake
From the words that we break.

Chorus:
Hello, hello, sad angel!
Have come to fight the war?
The drums on fire are calling
The soul marches out the door.
We fall to Earth together
The ground calling out for more.
Hello, hello, sad angel!
Have come to fight the war?

My eyes saw the words
With the prayer and the curse
Your hand had just slipped
With a sword that it keep.

Chorus: (x2)
Hello, hello, sad angel!
Have come to fight the war?
The drums on fire are calling
The soul marches out the door.
We fall to Earth together
The ground calling out for more.
Hello, hello, sad angel!
Have come to fight the war?
Come to fight the war!

Hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello
