Where's the booze?

Hangin' out for some dollar signs
I rolled the dices, got lucky 13 alright!
The winnerjacket's mine
I made a full-house outta dead-mans hand
The aces up my sleeve got me rich
But I got even more
A complimentary whore

Those sunny days are long gone and far away
To meet the devil face to face
I even put my lousy soul up for sale
'cos I'll be back again some day

Easy livin' in a dollar thrill
I was surfin' on fortune, was surfin' on fancy pills
And three dollar bills
Forgot the joker in the cash crusade
I lost my favourite card
They took my ace of spades away
I had to face the flames

Those sunny days are long gone and far away
To meet the devil face to face
I even put my lousy soul up for sale
'Cos I'll be back again some day

Those Vegas days are long gone and far away
Now I'm drinkin' with the dogs and pray
I wanna go back to the world of sin to stay
Yeah I'll be back again some day
Yeah I'll be back again some day
Yeah I'll be back again some day
