I close my eyes and I say goodnight
I open up everything is all right
I pull my hair back get it back real tight
I'm ready now for when the savages fight

I hit your face and I drop you to the floor
All the other pussies running out the fucking door
The cops are here and they raping all the whores
The tear gas is burning and I want some more

The sky's on fire tonight
My fault it is not mine
I see no guiding light
The sky's on fire tonight
The sky's on fire tonight

The kids are screaming and running away
The sounds of life are starting to fade
Pain and joy are trying to escape
Life and death just happen this way

The smoke fades away and all are gone
The parents stare wondering what they did wrong
Minds are pacing and faces run long
The only thing that remains is this song

The sky's on fire tonight
My fault it is not mine
I see no guiding light
The sky's on fire tonight
