No bombs no guns no more war no genocide no torture
No disease no affliction no crippled no addictions
No prisons no more poverty fresh air everyone is free

A place called love

No sun no moon will shine the Lamb will be our light
No hunger no more thirsting water of life we'll all drink
No more death no more crying every tear wiped from our eyes

A place called love

And the Spirit and the Bride say come let him who hears say come
Let him who thirsts say come let him who wishes come

To a place called love
