Sharpening blades in dreams of terror
Your fury is what you are Increasing lust of a living hate
Again and again in a physical pain

Her profanation's ready
The sacrifice is on it's way
The resonating screams arise
Until she dies, in her own blood
She's drowning down
(You) Can't escape from your own nature
Forever's who you are!

Drain all her will to resist without any respect
The scars you've done will be impressed like a mark on her back
A desecration's coming
The eyes you've never seen are closed
The sound of her breath drifts away
Forever gone

Burn!
Forever burn
All her dreams
She feels lost and facing the insanity
We're lost in this pain
Her whisper is fading away
Destiny won't forgive
(Won't) forgive the one who lead to the unmerciful fate!

Pray all your gods to be saved
You can not liberate
Your wicked soul from the dread of a tragical fate
Our inquisition is coming to punish your life
The sound of her scream makes you mad
The sin is done

Stalking preys with frantic sadism
Your evil's satisfied
Incoming will to devastate

Again an again in a critical haze

The snow white skin is burning
Impurity for all to see
Her shattered body is on the ground
Until she dies, In her own blood
She's drowning down
(You) Can't escape from your own nature
Forever's who you are!

Forever burn
All her dreams
She feels lost and facing the insanity
We're lost in this pain
Her whisper is fading away
Destiny won't forgive
(Won't) forgive the one who lead to the unmerciful
fate!

For this crime you'll be trapped in our cage
And again you'll be slave to the rage
We will impose the sentence of your death
For your demise
While you beg for a mercy denied
We'll be deaf and our purification will be blind
This violation will condemn to die!
