In your terror
Whispers in the somber night
Frozen in a voiceless scream

Reflections of your life are senseless
Hoping for a second chance
The dark wind calls your name ever so gently
Imminent death is here
Cannot be accepted

Fearing your end, your life has expired

In your terror
Whispers in the somber night
Out of sight, You are

Frozen in a voiceless scream

In your last breath
The dark wind closes in Your time has come
To leave this pathetic world of shit, of shame
This life that you've chosen To rebel against to turn your back on has repaid you in full with your life
Dishonor of your family has left you
Frozen in a voiceless scream
