Feel the pulse of the inner Earth and the surge of the seas

The breeze of a distant wind and the stench of disease

Summon forth the power drifting souls of the dead

Relinquishing dissonance The spirits lie to rest

Ghouls from the ruins chime glorious - Returning to their source

Some with content some with remorse equal as the dust

Emerging from the burning core unsettled by the sun

Illuminating energy this moment has been won

Stellar force apocalypse forever dead in the night

Region of a feral plain beyond the lunar light

Purify the stain of death cycle the trace of life

Ensiminate the fold of breath closer decaying mesh

Rivers of solitude through the forest of no light

Path of the dying sun forged through the ruins

Flesh for the carrion and flesh for the dirt

Remnants from a long time ago now withered feral earth
