The white walls in this room
Are making it harder to breath
I'm just waiting for the results
So come on doctor
What can you tell me?
Do you have good news to say?

The blood in my veins is running quicker and quicker
The exit sign is all you'll find inside the waiting room
The intercom is calling for a doctor to rush to the 3rd floor
Youve got a patient in room 338!

Oh no this must be a mistake
There's no way she could escape from here
In the middle of the night
Ahh ahh ah ah

Get up get up
Get on your feet again
I don't want to see you like this
You don't you don't
You don't belong here
Hospital beds were never made for you

Get up get up
Get on your feet again
I don't want to see you like this
You don't you don't
You don't belong here
Hospital beds were never made for you

Now someone check the cameras and We'll graph the path that she led down
Alert! alert! alert security
Put this place on lockdown!

Get up get up
Get on your feet again
I don't want to see you like this
You don't you don't
You don't belong here

Hospital beds were never made for you

I've had enough I've had enough
I just wanna get outta here

Get up get up
Get on your feet again
I don't want to see you like this
You don't you don't
You don't belong here
Hospital beds were never made for you

For you
