Would you step inside the white light
The smell of your house is fading now
And I'm still holding on
Well this ride has been so long
And this room couldn't get any colder
Please don't wake me
Because the sleep is what we've never known before
And I've never been so sure

Don't forget to send your love
From the places that you're going
I've never been this far from you
And these letters and calls mean everything
We never quit for anyone
We get so high, just to come down again
We were the best of them

Seventeen seconds until it's 3 A.M.
29 degrees could never break bestfriends
Let's drive into the starry sky
They shine so bright
But there's no stars out tonight

So where do we go from here?
When there's nowhere left to fear?

Don't forget to send your love
From the places that you're going
I've never been this far from you
And these letters and calls mean everything
We never quit for anyone
We get so high, just to come down again
We were the best of them

Higher, higher, higher, oh no
Higher, higher, higher, higher
(You and I were here under the starry night)

Don't forget to send your love
From the places that you're going
I've never been this far from you
And these letters and calls mean everything

We never quit for anyone
We get so high, just to come down again
We were the best of them
