Hard to follow my dreams workin' this 9 to 5
People keep tellin' me my check is on the way
So sun up to sundown I'm grindin', tryin' to make it by Prayin' for my ship to come and take away the pain

That day is finally here
That day is finally here
That day is finally here
New shoes, new clothes, new whip, new chain
New wrist, knew that, knew this

Finally here
That day is finally here
That day is finally here
New shoes, new clothes, new whip, new chain
New wrist, knew that, knew this

No, no I won't settle for nothing less than the air that I breathe
I know it's a struggle but who the hell gon' do it for me
Who the hell gon' do it free, if I don't get up and bust
my ass
That's my motto, I can't put my faith in the lotto
Luck don't stay nowhere near where I go

Unless you ride that muthafucka
And you be lucky enough to get away in the grave
What can I do, what can I say, I tried to get paid
But I got grazed, the bullet went through but I ain't get paid
Now what do I appreciate?
My J O B, hey boss, I'm comin' in late

Hard to follow my dreams workin' this 9 to 5
People keep tellin' me my check is on the way
So sun up to sundown I'm grindin', tryin' to make it by
Prayin' for my ship to come and take away the pain

That day is finally here
That day is finally here
That day is finally here
New shoes, new clothes, new whip, new chain

New wrist, knew that, knew this

Finally here

That day is finally here

That day is finally here

New shoes, new clothes, new whip, new chain

New wrist, knew that, knew this

Lil' cousin got it right? and bike without no frame

Ride the same rides without no brain?

Life ain't life, without no shame, if I make it out the hood

Damn right I'm gon' change my cell phone number

But the area code still gon be 305 though

My friends who was my friends just like my kin

Walked 'em in my door, but please wipe your feet on the rug

You can keep your shoes on, it's all love

Boy let me stop, I'm dreamin' too much, now who the hell

Won't give the model a million bucks?

Nobody but God, right now I could use me one of them black cards

I'm scarred, I fell apart, I came here with stars, it's hard huh?

Hard to follow my dreams workin' this 9 to 5

People keep tellin' me my check is on the way

So sun up to sundown I'm grindin', tryin' to make it by

Prayin' for my ship to come and take away the pain

That day is finally here

That day is finally here

That day is finally here

New shoes, new clothes, new whip, new chain

New wrist, knew that, knew this

Finally here

That day is finally here

That day is finally here

New shoes, new clothes, new whip, new chain

New wrist, knew that, knew this

Findin' me, that day I been tryin' to reach

That pay I been dyin' to see, boy them folk wouldn't lie to me

I thought money ain't grow on trees

Depends on the roots, how you plant that seed

They quit, you can't see no leaves

Hold up, I need my Versace's Grace covers of magazines, my mother she proud of me
Myself, I, the one who the haters thought wasn't gon' be shit
Big yachts, every day I get seasick, I was broke, the prefix
My book say "Why y'all gave that nigga some cash?"
I wrote a song about it, wanna hear it? Here it goes

Hard to follow my dreams workin' this 9 to 5
People keep tellin' me my check is on the way
So sun up to sundown I'm grindin', tryin' to make it by
Prayin' for my ship to come and take away the pain

That day is finally here
That day is finally here
That day is finally here
New shoes, new clothes, new whip, new chain
New wrist, knew that, knew this

Finally here
That day is finally here
That day is finally here
New shoes, new clothes, new whip, new chain
New wrist, knew that, knew this
