Flo Rida Ft. Lil Wayne - Let It Roll Pt. 2

[Chorus]

Love is nice when it's understood
Even nicer when it makes you feel good
You got me trippin' why our love is old
Come on baby, let the good times roll (x5)

[Flo Rida]

It's like Woodstock city, brand new billion
And bark to the music, sucker than a psychic
My heart beat acoustic, moves like Hendrick
Walk to a fire, then I flame and kiss it
Go hard in my lambo, strikes and a visit
To meeting in the rain, gotta roll with the vision
Vision of a good time, all I wanna know
When the party gon' stop, let the good times roll
Come on let's go, you got another minute
Get the party on the roll, ain't nothing like the feeling
When you're winning in your soul
The wheel keep spinning, only got one love
Stop, stop the show, and stop, stop the flow
The world ain't ready cause I rock the globe
So act like you know, act like you know
Act like you know, just what to do
When the good times roll

[Chorus]

Love is nice when it's understood
Even nicer when it makes you feel good
You got me trippin' why our love is old
Come on baby, let the good times roll (Yeah)
Come on baby, let the good times roll (Yeah)
Come on baby, let the good times roll (Hey, Flo I gotcha yeah)
Come on baby, let the good times roll (Yeah)
Come on baby, let the good times roll (Uh)

[Lil Wayne]

Take your take your clothes off
Ride that p*ssy, I drove off
Highway to heaven, I'll burn the bridge
Red bandana, blood, sweat, and tears
Yeah it's Tunechi, with a capital crucifix
Let the good times roll like my weed

Tricks on my skateboard and up my sleeve
YMCMB Truk everything else
Some many whips my garage got whelps
Now put your mudda mudda hands in the air
And my throne is an electric chair
[Flo Rida]
And let's go all night, all night
Wake up the club and let's go all out, all out
More drinks for us, toast for the good times
Where they last forever, we're youngs, yeah the good times
Raise your glass, let's all have some fun
[Chorus]
Come on baby, let the good times roll (x5)
