The dazzling light that your always emitting
You know it leaves blind and breathless on my back
The sentence for the crime that im committing
Is to need only the one thing that I lack
And I love you still and I always will, Evangeline
(Evangeline)
Nothing is as it seems, I'm living in your dreams
Oh my Evangeline
(Evangeline)
A western song pulls us along as we glide
Town to town we hope no more to roam
There is an ache I know will only begin to subside
When I lay down next to you back home
And I love you still and I always will Evangeline
(Evangeline)
Nothing is as it seems, I'm living in your dreams
Evangeline
(Oh my Evangeline)
My fever broke and I awoke just wishing for you by my side
You said if wishes were horses beggers like me would ride
And I love you still and I always will Evangeline
(Evangeline)
