Well I fell into prison about a quarter till three
Where I found in my cell a glass waiting for me
So I filled what was empty and I pulled up a stool
But he stood in the corner, the old devil wouldn't move
He said, "You drink when you're lonely." No I drink when I want!
He said, "You'll never be sober." So would I win that?
I only drink to be merry but unfortunately
I'm in the wrong prison cell and the wrong company

Queen Annes Revenge
Wander Lust
To Youth
Don't Let me Die Still Wonderin'
Within a Mile of Home
The Spoken Wheel
With a Wonder and a Wild Desire
