I'm lying here so incomplete, hear me crying now
You were so near, now you're out of reach, see me crying now
How can life just go on without you, will you show me
the way
I need someone to help me through and every night I pray

Refrain:

'Cause I believe, that I'll be with you again
I believe, that we'll find a way
I believe, our love's gonna last forever
And we'll be free

To lose my will is what I fear, am I strong enough?
'Cause there are still so many tears to be crying out
I don't wanna live for tomorrow longing for yesterday
See me walking along the long road, don't lead me astray

Refrain

Oh why does my heart feel this way
Trapped in neverending pain
I'm so tired of being strong
All alone

Refrain
