Must be the winter of my hero
A final chance to take a stand
With temperatures approaching zero
Come a little closer and hold my hand
Some people fear the ultra-extra-ordinary
But now it's my turn to roam

Fast right hold tight
I'm coming home

Refrain:

You want it all, that's more than I could ever give It's what we make, when we break out of the cage we live in
You want it all, that's more than I could ever be Out of the black and back to the beat, the soul you've given me

So many times I tried to say it
These words that swirl inside my head
I'm in the game, but can I play it
Sometimes this life just feel so dead
Some people fear the ultra-extra-ordinary
But now it's my turn to roam

Fast right hold tight
I'm coming home

Refrain

Givin' it up
Livin' it up
Takin' it down
Workin' it out 3x

Simple winds are fast approaching
To turn it all around again
Just one more hit and I'll be loathing
This emptiness inside my head
Some people fear the ultra-extra-ordinary
But now it's my turn to roam

Fast right hold tight
I'm coming home

Refrain b:

You want it all, that's more than I could ever give It's what we make, when we break out of the cage we
live in

You want it all, that's more than I could ever be Out of the black and back to the beat, the soul,

the grace, the space you've given me

Refrain

Givin' it up

Livin' it up

Takin' it down

Workin' it out 3x
