Hey, kids, where you been?
I hope not out killing again
What's that I see in your coat
What's that scar from on your throat
Film yourself ruin anybodies life
I smoke a lot but never got that high

On life putting on a price
Not worth anything, take what you like
I hope you like what you see
So you there's no reason to point that gun at me

I'll fix it all with a gun
Right or wrong, can't be undone
A bullet changes everything
Hear the echo of the shots that ring

Should have only had to look
Through the playground bars
Never thought what you'd end up seein'
Would be so hard

I'll fix it all with a gun
Right or wrong, can't be undone
A bullet changes everything
Hear the echo of the shots that ring

I'll kill you, I'll kill you
I'll kill you, I'll kill you
I'll kill you, I'll fucking kill you

I'll fix it all with a gun
Right or wrong, can't be undone
A bullet changes everything
Hear the echo of the shots that ring

I'll fix it all with a gun
No fear of death
No fear of death
