It's all the same
Or so it seems to you
While you stand tall
Your breaking me in two

And I'm still here waiting

I've been feeling like clone
Now you've dug a hole in me
I'm a window you're a stone
We're meant to be alone
You never see yourself
Looking through my own

It's all a game
Or so it seems to you
A notch to your name
Something to see you through

And I'm still here waiting

I've been feeling like clone
Now you've dug a hole in me
I'm a window you're a stone
We're meant to be alone
You never see yourself
Looking through my own

Life is so misunderstood I would explain if I could
