"Never"

Looked in the mirror and I saw it all fall away
My eyes are open, I'm excited I've got something to say
I see the music's come to take me for a ride

No, you never, you never, you never be true
Yes, your always, it's always, you always say
Still your heart owes me something
You'll never be you
No you never be true
Yes, your always, it's always, it's always about you

Long gone is the illusion of yesterday
Gone are the puzzles and the games you used to play
I see your ways are gonna take you for a ride

And I'll be on my way
I'll never be there again
I feel new
So relieved
Woken

No, you never, you never, you never be true
Cause it's always, it's always, it's always about you
