"Odium"

A summer dawn, this red familiar strain
A rusty nail cracked in a wall
Unreal the scene to leave with the morning train
While in crowds of grey you walk

{on and on the line}

So close your eyes
And touch the odium
In deep sea skies
The searing odium
Meshworks crawl
To feed the odium
A screw inside...

Indifferent eyes, a milky window pane
A distant movie worn and strung
Sonambulistic tool, take a walk in the summer rain
Besides illuminating songs

{of iconoclast kind}

So close your eyes....
