

Flowing Tears "Joy Parade"

Visit "Joy Parade" on MotoLyrics.com

Drapeline, drapeline... you're the sea within I flow
Hatesmile, hatesmile... distant waters filter through Frontlines, frontlines... frowning joy parade to you
Redsky, deadsky... you're a shelter I refuse, I hide...

... a joyful surface dance.... so unconditional

We walked the streets at night
Fireworks in summerrain
And how I wish the rain to fall again
A wave to flood my life
Distant seats on concrete fields
And how I wish I could not care at all

Elate the open mind
Trustful wounds revealed to bleed
And how I wish my blood to flow away

I walk the streets at night
Leaving miles forever gone
Afraid I'll never be a child again
