

Flowing Tears "Odium"

Visit "Odium" on MotoLyrics.com

A summer dawn, this red familiar strain
A rusty nail cracked in a wall
Unreal the scene to leave with the morning train
While in crowds of grey you walk

(on and on the line)

So close your eyes
And touch the odium
In deep sea skies
The searing odium
Meshworks crawl

To feed the odium
A screw inside...

Indifferent eyes, a milky window pane
A distant movie worn and strung
Sonambulistic tool, take a walk in the summer rain
Besides illuminating songs

(of iconoclast kind)

So close your eyes....
