In your eyes,
Fell the rain of a thousand years.
In your smile,
Burns the pain of a million fallen tears.
In your mind,
The shades of the fear that dreams went wrong.
All your life,
Played part in a scene you don't belong.

Only the night can save,
We were lost before the start.
Only this time we break,
And forever torn apart,
We'll never meet again...

In your eyes,
Fell the rain of a thousand years.
In your heart,
Lies the doubt of a million wasted tears.
In your thoughts,

So aware we ignore that dreams corrode.
All your life,
Try to walk under seals of all the load.

See the pain in your eyes...
No more will I take it
See the pain in your smile...
Right here I will break this

In your eyes,
Found the rain of a thousand years.
In your smile,
Lies the pain of a million fallen tears.

Only the silent rain,
Know we're lost before the start.
Only this time escape,
And forever torn apart,
We'll never meet again...
