someone spoke of fear
someone said the stars have cried
when someone shed a tear someone stole the smile I lost and someone picked up fear someone caught the lines I wrote to someone far from here someone took away the sky and someone lost belief someone set my world on fire and the brightest spark is me

will they come for me?
will they set me free?

somewhere in the dark
somewhere in the dark where we won't see

will they run from me?
will they come for me?
will they set me free?
